

Things to Do at MSU

MSU Spirit Shop – Locations in 1855 Place, Kellogg Center and the MSU Union, with a wide selection of Spartan gear and other supplies.

MSU Museum - Exhibits on cultural and natural history, with an emphasis on the Great Lakes region. Its gift shop features unique items from around the world. Free admission. (<https://museum.msu.edu/>)

Eli and Edythe Broad Art Museum - The newest museum on campus features international art of all media. Free admission. Visit <http://broadmuseum.msu.edu/> for exhibit and visitor information.

W. J. Beal Botanical Garden - Founded in 1873, the Beal Botanical Garden is the oldest continuously operated garden of its kind in the U.S. It includes over 5,000 species organized in economic, systematic, landscape and ecological groupings. The Garden also features an endangered and threatened plant collection and Michigan native wetland plants. Located west of the Main Library. Admission is free.

Horticultural Demonstration Garden - Visitors can take a stroll through the colorful floral displays of the MSU Horticulture Gardens – an official All-American Trial Garden test site for annual bedding plants. They have an extensive perennial collection, with an annual display and rose collection. Located south of the Plant & Soil Sciences Building. Open April 1-November 1, dawn to dusk. Admission is free.

4H Children's Garden - Designed especially for children, and completely handicap accessible, this delightful garden features a tree house built from twigs and limbs, a garden house, and an amphitheater and themed gardens, such as pizza and Peter Rabbit. Just imagine a garden where plants, children, and imaginations grow! Located south of the Plant & Soil Sciences Building. Open April 1-November 1, dawn to dusk. Admission is free.

MSU Dairy Store - When you visit the Dairy Store, we want to see you leaving with a smile on your face. We are dedicated to making your visit enjoyable and serving our delectable ice cream and other soda fountain favorites. During your visit, we encourage you to visit the observation deck to see the processing facilities. Observe a multimedia presentation on cheese and ice cream production. Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays offer the best opportunities for catching our process making some of our products, including our award winning cheeses!

Located in Anthony Hall. Look for the featured Odyssey of the Mind flavor, created just for World Finals 2023!
- Email sent 1/13 and 2/23

University Stores – with an emphasis on necessities like fans, batteries, Spartan gear and other supplies. Located on Service Road, just west of Harrison Road.
